1. Two Soviet divisions that had been briefly stationed in Moldavia have left for Bulgaria. [redacted] three army corps and two Armored divisions in all have been sent to Bulgaria. One motive for this movement has been suggested in the rumors of revolts of Bulgarian peasants against the kolkhozes.
2. Reportedly on 10 May Soviet troop movements were noted in the vicinity of Galati. The new units, including several Mongolian groups, occupy the naval barracks at Tiglina and those formerly belonging to 11 Siret Infantry Regiment.
3. At Galati the anti-aircraft defense has been reorganized on a war footing.
4. Less intensive Soviet military activity has been observed at the port of Giurgiu. Troop and munitions movements are made at night and surveillance in the immediate vicinity is quite severe.
